REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for the allowance of claims 1-8 is the inclusion of the method steps of an ink jet recording head that comprises the heat generating resistor coated being coated with protection film and providing a recording mode in which the ink is ejected, the ink having a maximum temperature at a surface of the protection film of 560°C. It is these method of steps found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 9-18 is the inclusion of the limitations of an ink jet recording head substrate and an ink jet head that comprises a protection film with which said heat generating resistor is coated wherein a maximum temperature at a surface where said protection film comes into contact with the ink is 560°C during driving of said heat generating resistor. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 19-26 is the inclusion of the limitations of an ink jet apparatus that comprises a protection film with which said heat generating resistor is coated wherein a driving signal control means is provided for making a maximum temperature at a surface where said protection film comes into contact with the ink 560°C during driving of said heat generating resistor. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
